DRAFT

Commander Edward L. Beach, USN, Chairman
NSC Special Committee on Attack Warning Channels and Procedures for Civilians
The White House

Dear Commander Beach:

This is in response to your letters dated 17 August to the Director of Central Intelligence and to the Intelligence Advisory Committee in which you request a progress report on actions taken pursuant to NSC 5513/1.

All necessary action has been taken by the intelligence community in discharging its responsibilities as outlined in the chart. Under present operating procedures, the responsibilities assigned to the Director of Central Intelligence, the Intelligence Advisory Committee, the Watch Committee, ~~and the National Indications Center~~, as set forth in the chart, are clear, are consistent with our interpretation of what they ought to be, and are within our capability to carry out. In short, the chart accurately reflects what we are now attempting to do.

Sincerely,

C. P. CABELL
Lieutenant General, USAF
Acting Director

with its national Indications Center,
